

A Gift of Music: Christmas 2016

Roger E. Bruner

I've been playing guitar, singing, and writing my own songs for over fifty years.

I make no claims to be a professional musician. I'll never be as good a singer or guitarist as I want to be, and I'll never be a professional recording engineer, either.

But I love sharing my music with anyone who'll listen, and I pray that this collection of some of my favorites—recorded at home—will both bless and entertain you.

Although I enjoy listening to classical music and oldies from the '50s & '60s, I only write Christian songs. With rare exceptions, my style is reminiscent of the "folk fad" of the 1960s. ("Peace on the Earth" is a major exception.)

If this kind of music doesn't appeal to you,

1. Almost You're Smiling
2. Then Dawned Sunday
3. I Believe It!
4. Nobody Else
5. Keep on Praising the Lord
6. When You Close Your Eyes in Prayer
7. Giver, Gift, Gifted
8. Beggar
9. Till I Place My Life in His Hands
10. Without You, Lord
11. What I Can Do for You
12. Peace on the Earth!

I won't be offended. Feel free to pass this CD along to someone you think might enjoy it.

However, if you would like to have more of my songs, just ask. I believe God gave me the music to give to others.
