1. Take this piece of bread as a sym- bol of my bod- y;
2. Take this cup of wine as a sym- bol of my life's blood;

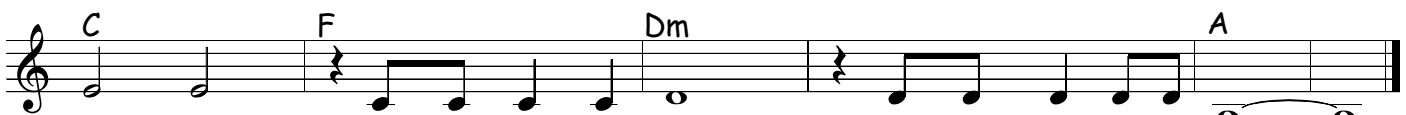

when you eat it, think of me and re- mem- ber who I am, when you drink it, think of me and re- mem- ber who I am,

who I am.
who I am.

3. What we shared last night was close to per- fect, but where have they gone? Don't they know who I am?
